

About the TOSR Authors:

Beth Lawrence is a certified speech-language pathologist with over 20 years experience. She has worked in early intervention, with adult stroke victims, and in geriatrics. For the last 12 years she has run a private pediatric practice, Lawrence Speech Pathology Services in Baltimore. She assesses and works with students with language-based learning disabilities and articulation difficulties. Beth also enjoys leading workshops on a variety of topics including social-pragmatics, vocabulary acquisition, reading comprehension, memory strategies and writing. She is the co-founder of Communication APptitude, an education technology company.

Deena Seifert is a certified speech-language pathologist with over 20 years experience. She specializes in pediatric speech-language and has worked in school systems, a rehabilitation center, and a center for individuals with mental disabilities. For the last 12 years, Deena has been in private practice with her own business, Figure of Speech Therapy. Approximately 70% of her caseload is comprised of children who have dyslexia and associated learning disabilities. Deena has led workshops in written language, technology and language strategies. She is the co-founder of Communication APptitude, an education technology company.